This program can be run by loading it onto eclipse and running it. If the .jar file is generated then the user can just click the .jar file and then in the text field enter the amount of Hexagon Crosses they want to view. There is a reset button to reset the amount as well. Note: N's above 100 take a long time so the user may have to wait a while.